ABOUT THE PRESENTER

LORI GILL
MA, CTS

Lori Gill, founder and clinical director at the Attachment and Trauma Treatment Centre for Healing, is a Registered Psychotherapist, Certified Trauma Specialist (CTS), trainer, Consultant Supervisor for the National Institute for Trauma and Loss in Children (TLC), and former psychology professor with 18+ years of experience working with children, youth, and adults in various professional settings. Her diverse background has provided her a wealth of skills in the areas of trauma, attachment, mental health, compassion fatigue prevention, addictions, eating disorders, wellness and education. Lori combines her professional experience with her love for learning resulting in trainings which are a rich culmination of research, evidence-based and best practice treatment models, and techniques to bring you leading edge, practical, and integrative trainings. Lori has had the honour of presenting for many Indigenous based practitioners, agencies, and communities and this is an area of passion for her due to the pervasiveness of the trauma inflicted upon Indigenous peoples.

This workshop will provide insight into the impact of trauma and attachment on adolescence. Workshop focus will include a variety of strategies for promoting safety and engaging at risk youth. Research, resources, and intervention strategies will be shared.

Creative Strategies for Engaging Youth and Healing Trauma

FEBRUARY 13, 2019
9:00 AM TO 4:00 PM
CANAD INNS POLO PARK
1405 ST.MATTHEWS,AVE
WINNIPEG, MB.

Benefits of Trauma-Informed Care

Some of the benefits of becoming trauma-informed may include:

- An increase in safety of staff and consumers/clients
- An improved organizational culture that offers a safe and supportive environment for all
- Care for the caregivers, thereby reducing risk for compassion fatigue and vicarious trauma
- Improved quality of service
- A reduction in negative encounters and events
- The creation of community of safety, health, wellness, recovery, and empowerment
- An increase in productivity, job satisfaction, and enhanced workplace environment

Through this training participants will gain an awareness of:

- The impact of attachment and trauma on adolescence and self concept;
- The sensory function of at risk behaviours;
- Experiential review of practical intervention strategies;
- Assessment, treatment formulation, and outcome measures for working with adolescents through a trauma informed lens.

ABOUT AULNEAU RENEWAL CENTRE

The Aulneau Renewal Centre is a registered bilingual Not-for-profit organization located in St. Boniface, Winnipeg. It was founded in 1979 as a Mission of the Missionary Oblate Sisters of St. Boniface.

MISSION

The mission of Aulneau Renewal Centre is to empower personal growth by providing compassionate counseling and therapy services and by building the capacity of attachment-formed practice through training and education.
